

Company Policy

Vitmark-Ukraine Company adheres to legality, transparency, and integrity principles in its activities. It does not allow any illegal actions, unlawful acts, or violations of the rules and regulations established by current international and national legislation.

We demand from our employees and our partners a responsible attitude to their duties and job performance, as well as the observance of the principles of justice and virtue, and high ethical standards in their professional activities and in their relations with each other.

According to the Anti-Corruption Policy of the Company, we do not allow any manifestations of corruption, bribery, and fraud within the Company and in relationships with our partners; we do not tolerate accepting gifts and do not participate in illegal activities that may affect business decisions; we counteract conflicts of interest that can lead to negative consequences for the reputation and financial condition of the Company. Anyone involved in receiving, providing, mediating in receiving, or providing any bribes or benefits shall be considered equally guilty by us..

To support the above principles, the Company has approved the Compliance Code, Anti-Corruption Program, and Corporate Social Responsibility Policy and introduced a system of sanctions for manifestations of corruption by employees and partners.

In this regard, we suggest consolidating bilateral representations and warranties of joint counteraction to fraud, bribery, and corruption, legalizing proceeds from crime and the financing of terrorism, complying with the international sanctions regime in the process of our cooperation by introducing an Anti-Corruption Clause into the agreements, and consolidating mutual obligations assumed in this regard.

If you become aware of a conflict of interest, employee coercion, violation of internal policies and procedures, fraud, corruption, abuse of office and trust, or violation of the rights of partners in partnerships, please report them by sending an email to ACP@VITMARK.COM.
